Fee's are due in advance. We accept cash, cheque or postal orders, cheques should be made payable to Samad & Co Immigration Consultants. Debit and credit cards are not accepted. For applications and general advice fee's are due at the first meeting. For appeals where the Court hearing date has not been fixed or where we have lodged the appeal 50% of the fee's needs to be paid at the first meeting and the outstanding balance needs to be paid in full upon receipt of the notice of hearing or the respondents bundle. Applications fee's to the Home Office or the British Embassy/High Commission have to be paid by the applicant and also additional costs of interpreters, translations, experts reports etc, would be additional to the fee's quoted above and you are responsible for any disbursements incurred and we will advise you of such estimated costs at the start of the case. Fee's quoted above correct as of July 2007.
